JOHN RYAN HERE TO PUSH AVIATION

Son of Thomas F. Wants War Department Aid.

doned Baltimore Project Gives Berger Hope of Getting Aero Club of America's Sanction for Washington Meet-Rumor Denied.

John Barry Ryan, son of Thomas F. Ryan, arrived in the city last evening to interest the army in the United States aeronautical reserve, whose members are recruited from all classes interested. He will call at the War Department this morning and put his plan before the morning and put his plan before the heads of the department.

The Aero Club of Washington will probably hold a meeting this afternoon to take action on the aviation plans of the proposed meet to be held here this fall, and Ryan may attend. A president is to be elected. The club has been without a president since Thomas F. Walsh died some time ago.

It is understood in Washington that Col. Joyce has abandoned the proposed meet six miles outside of Baltimore and will surrender the sanction he obtained from the Aero Club of America to-morrow. He was in New York yesterday.

Berger Seeks Sanction.

J. S. Berger, the New York promoter, was busy yesterday telegraphing and talking to some of the officials of the Aero Club of America in New York. He tried to secure the second week in November, but it had been granted to Kansas. Topeka, Kans., is also an applicant for a sanction to hold an aviation meet in that city during November. Mr. Berger last night sent a certified check for $100 to the Aero Club in New York with a request for a sanction the first week in November to take the place of the one surrendered by Col. Joyce. Joyce Report Denied.

The statement that Col. Joyce had abandoned his meet at Halethorpe was denied in Baltimore last night. It was said that the Aero Club of Washington had expressed a willingness to lend support

t is thought, when the Aero Club of Washington meets. The Chamber of Commerce will undoubtedly agree with the local aeronautical bodys uthampton, Sept. 21 .- A distinguished delegation of Irishmen embarked on the steamer Oceanic to-day for New York. The mission of the members is to interview the officials at Washington on the question of inducing the Cunard Line to continue Queenstown as a port of call for its large mail steamers. this country recently Frank H. Hitchcock, American Postmaster General, promised to receive the deputation.

The number includes the lord mayor of Dublin and the presidents of the chamber of commerce of Dublin and Belfast, the town clerk of Queenstown, Sir Edward Fitzgerald, lord mayor of Cork, and Sir James Long, also of Cork.

FIRE HELMET TESTED.

Norfolk Chief Demonstrates Practicability of Appliance.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 21.-Chief Richard McLaughlin and Fireman R. M. Allen, of the Norfolk fire department, to-day MULLEN, W.-Outfielder; Philadelphia demonstrated the practicability of a fire helmet invented by Prof. George Pee, of MULLIGAN, C. B.-Infielder; New York this city.

The appliance is designed to allow fire- MULLIN. men to enter burning buildings without danger from smoke or flames.

Chief McLaughlin and the fireman donned the helmets and, with an enthusiastic crowd watching them, walked into the Monticello Hotel. As if the building was burning, they climbed six flights of MULLIN, JOHN L.—Outfielder; Washingstairs and were able to find their way ton, American Association, 1884. comfortably through a darkened hall- MULVEY, way littered with furniture at the top. Both men were panting heavily when they took off their helmets after ten minutes' demonstration, but both voted the apparatus a complete success. It carries an oxygen cartridge, which supplies the wearer with breathing material.

OBIUARY.

Chicago, Sept. 21,-Daniel Long, for more than half a century a well-known auctioneer in Chicago, died at his home last night. He was born seventy-three years ago in Chicago, just across the river from old Fort Dearborn, and lived all his life in this city.

Charles Feltman.

New York, Sept. 21.-Word has been received of the death in Cassel, Germany, of Charles Feltman, known as "The Father of Coney Island." When Coney Island was simply a bathing place Feltman laid the foundation for the attractice pleasure resort into which it has since developed.

Mrs. Bethsheba W. Smith.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Sept. 21.-Mrs. Bethsheba Wilson Smith, a pioneer Mormon, and cousin of the prophet, Joseph Smith, died yesterday. She was president of the general board of the Mormon Relief Society.

Winslow Brewster Standish.

Boston, Sept. 21.-Winslow Brewster Standish, who long kept the "Old Curiosity Shop" in Plymouth and was widely known, died this morning in that town after an illness prolonged through several months, aged seventy-six. Few pilgrims went to the historic old town without visiting Standish's shop and listening to his stories relating to the goods on sale, and he knew the value of all the old-time articles. He sold old-fashioned furniture and bric-a-brac to go all over the country.

Mrs. Mary Vandeventer Douglas. Morristown, N. J., Sept. 21 .- Mrs. Mary Vandeventer Douglas is dead at her residence in Western avenue. She was a descendant of one of the foremost fami-Hes of this State and remembered many distinguished ancestors. She was the widow of John Douglas, a prominent lawver. She leaves two daughters and two sons. One of her sons is Walter Douglas, the noted artist, and the other is Malcolm Douglas, the author and playwright.
